- Discussion was held whether we think we can set up and run the book fair if it comes in early, but delivery date is not currently set in stone.
- Planning a special event, “Grand time with Grand People”, a kind of Grandparent night. But open to other family members for special persons if grandparents are unable to come. Planned for Monday Nov. 2nd.
- We will be asking for volunteer storytellers for “Grand TImes with Grand People” night. Have them each read aloud a book for the kids to listen to. Either their favorite picture book, or one they think would be a good choice.
- The PFA will also be offering a $5 dinner option the night of the special event for attendees and guests to purchase.
- We will also have a DIY S’Mores trail mix bar, keeping in mind potential nut allergies.
- Planned prizes for the book fair. Possible prizes include pencils, highlighters, pens.
- The DIY bookmark station will be held again this year as it was very popular last year.
- The Literati theme is campfire. So we will decorate with a faux campfire and small tent.
- This will be our first year using Literati. We are excited to see how it goes.
